To better present DMS INTERNATIONAL GROUP, it is important to introduce its CEO, Master. Dominique SAATENANG, who is a businessman at heart since the age of 6 years he began working in trade to contribute to help his family in his native Cameroon.

His high-level sports career has allowed him to create important relationships in the business world. A former World Kungfu Champion, he is the first African in history to have joined the Shaolin Temple in China, where he has been a Cultural Ambassador since 2011. He is also the President and founder of the African Martial Arts Festival (www.fadam-festival.com) which takes place every year in an African country, President and founder of the French-African Wushu Association (www.afawushu.com) which is the best Wushu club in France, and President and founder of the International Shaolin Black and White Association which organizes show tours around the world.

Master Saatenang is currently the CEO of major companies in Africa such as AIT (Africa International trade) and GLIT (Guo Long International Trade). Having lived more than 20 years in Africa, more than 10 years in China and nearly 15 years in France, he has shared his experience with many investors, and the creation of DMS International Group has allowed him to enhance his address book.

International trade institutions have also seen in him a potential for relations between continents: he is notably Vice-President of the China-Africa Chamber of Commerce (www.china-africa.cn) and President of the Africa Division of the China International Economic Cooperation (www.capc.com.cn). These titles place him at the heart of China's transactions with Africa, notably in the search for raw materials in Africa and investment projects for which he is a consultant.

The experience acquired by Master Saatenang has made him an expert in the cultural and economic relations between Africa, China and Europe. Thus, he multiplies conferences in universities and international forums on the economic and cultural relations between the three continents.
